3 2 1

Clever designed with a space maximising floorplan incorporating all the elements of a comfortable life. This near new three-bedroom, two-bathroom Torrens Title home is indeed something special? but you could probably tell that the minute you see the bold, pillared façade. It's a repository of modern lines and progressive thinking, framed by an elegant, well-kept front yard.

Indoors we have three generous carpeted bedrooms, all with built-in-robcs and the master with its own ensuite. The sparkling main bathroom has a separate bath and shower. There's a study too, at the front of the house, and a laundry with plenty of storage space.

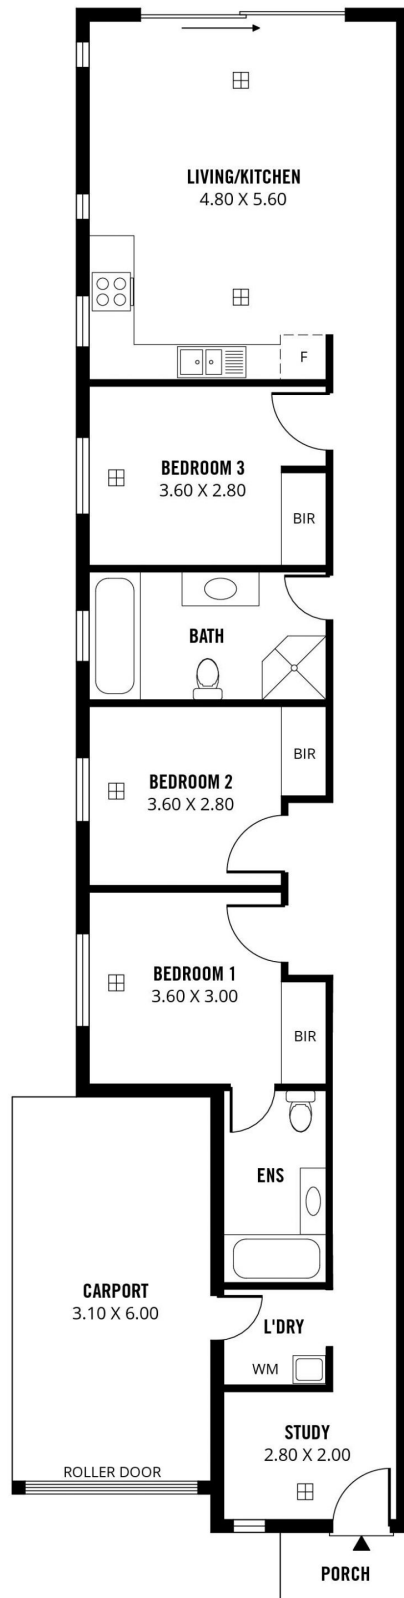

The highlight of the home is the open-plan kitchen and living area. Glossy tiles give it an expansive, homely feel, whilst the stylish kitchen equipped with premium quality
