43 Savas Road is a ground breaking, standalone, Torrens-titled home in Rostrevor that has created quite a stir. Ultra-modern with sleek finishes and a distinctive look, this is part of the next generation of family homes.

The bold façade features a clever interplay of glass and render, giving a forward-thinking feel to the home. A wide paved driveway leads to a double remote garage, and a slat security fence around the front entrance provides an extra level of assurance.

Once inside, this custom-designed home really makes its architectural statement. Generous naturally-lit spaces fuse
