3 2 2

Your home is your sanctuary, a place for the pressures of life to fade away and be replaced by happy family moments. You could not ask for a more stylish, well-appointed and comfortable backdrop for this to happen than this magnificent family home. It represents a chance to secure an easy and happy lifestyle for you and your family.

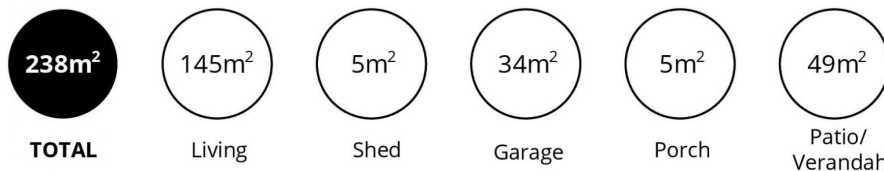

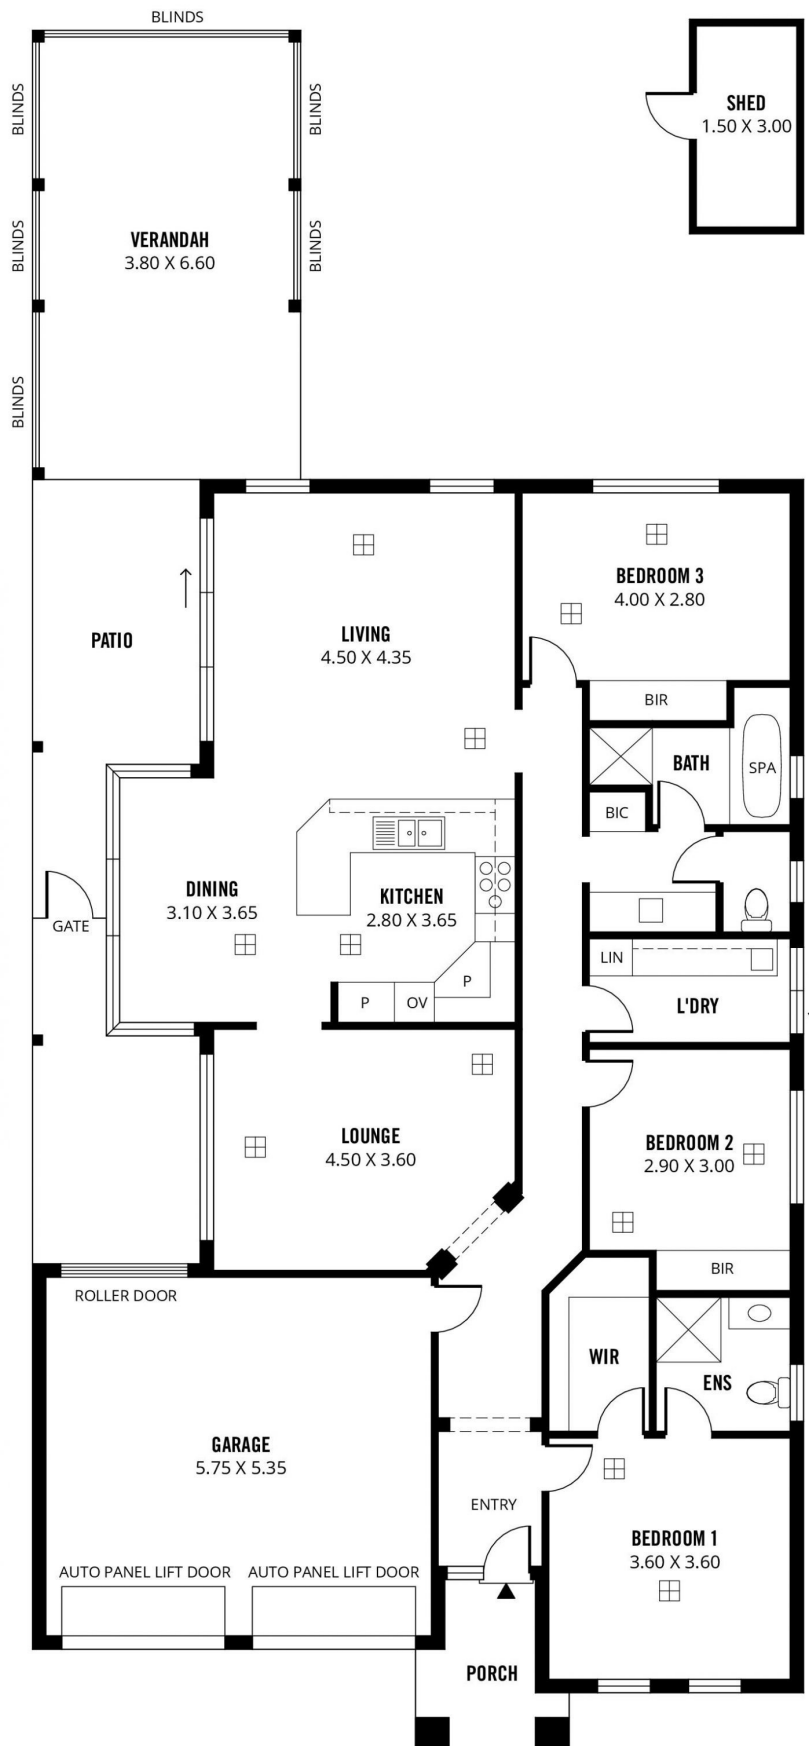

The neat rendered brick façade and tiled roof makes for eye-catching street appeal, sublimely complementing the low-maintenance front yard. A wide driveway leads to the dual garage, offering an alternative entry to the home to the front porch. It also has a roller door at the rear.

Indoors and there's a natural flow to the floor plan, with a long corridor leading you to the multiple living areas. These include a large lounge area, which is a perfect media room
