This impeccably presented three-level townhouse is ridiculously close to everything good Adelaide CBD has to offer. A four-bedroom urban sanctuary offering space, convenience and luxurious comfort is going to appeal to a wide section of the market, so don't delay.

Built in 1987, you're in a tightly held complex of just five superbly maintained townhouses. Exposed brick facades make for eye-catching street appeal, and the solid construction is evident from just a glance. Number three sits on a 98-square-metre block of land and offers 115-square-metres of living space.

Upon entrance is a single car parking and a low maintenance paved courtyard at the back. The lower level is home to the kitchen, living and dining area, unified by wall-to-wall tiling and a commitment to style. There's
