Elegant comfort coexists with functionality in this custom-designed Torrens Titled Home in a sought-after pocket in South Plympton. Light-filled interiors, soft tones and a commitment to quality fixtures and fittings make this a home even the most discerning buyers will fall in love with.

Sitting an equal distance from the city and the sea, this is a home that gives you the best of many worlds. The designers have conscientiously used available space to create a free-flowing, seamless floor plan from front to back. An immediate sense of style is created by the sandstone façade and exposed aggregate driveway, and this resonates through the home.

Entry is through the covered front porch into a grand front living area, where the three-metre-high ceiling gives a
